New Jobs Developed

Canadian Western Bank

Madison participates in a virtual team meeting from her home office

Madison G. recently joined Canadian Western Bank's Project Management Office, as a fulltime Administrative Assistant in Edmonton. Due to COVID19, Madison started this exciting position with virtual training at home, accommodated by dedicated and welcoming team members, and will be working from home for the foreseeable future. Madison plays an essential role, supporting the Project Management Office Team in overseeing and ensuring the accuracy of invoicing from different vendors. Her responsibilities include verifying, validating and coding invoices and time sheets submitted by vendors using specific software. Madison's supervisor and teammates quickly recognized Madison's passion and skill with numbers and expressed their gratitude to the Rotary Employment Partnership for introducing them to Madison, and the wonderful contribution she has made to the team in just a few weeks!

Advantage Home Health Solutions

David and his colleagues

David is the newest full-time warehouse assistant at Advantage Home Health Solutions, where he assembles adaptive equipment such as chairs and walkers, and pulls inventory to fill home kit orders for delivery. With his colleagues, David also helps deliver and install ramps and stair lifts for customers. He is truly an integral part of the warehouse team.

Thank you, Phil and Fran Hochhausen of Heritage Park Rotary Club and owners of Advantage Home Health Solutions, for hiring through the Rotary Employment Partnership!
